getting what they called the top-notch program. They were coming in and being able to get them and, yes, they were.
And they have their ways of doing it.

If Mike Noll could be here, you need to, to sub several of them, yes, he could do it. There's a lot of Mike Nolls out there.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Is it predominantly going through the, the non-school programs, the AAU Programs; is that where they're making those connections?

COACH IRONS: Well, the A, the AAU' Programs, uh, you know, they, they have, you know, they're, have those situations whereby they will follow kids and, and they will take care of certain coaches.

Q I was meaning to later but I think I'll ask the question right here. Do, are you aware of any situation, student or coach, where a coach provided twenty-five or thirty thousand dollars in rent subsidies or a job or a car --

DOCTOR URHAHN: Or tuition.

Q -- or tuition --

A No, I don't know.

Q -- to a student by name, you know, by school, by location to come to that program? Where you have actual knowledge of the, those, those facts, anything like that?

A I would say, how did get to when his mother stays right down in (inaudible) and didn't have a job or whatever.

Q Coach, I just want to know, not, not a question.

A What I've heard.

Q I want to know if you have any personal knowledge --

A Yeah, I have personal knowledge of that.

Q -- of, where you know of the, of the exchange of money or --

A Well, no, I, I --

Q -- a car or job to get a student.

A I can't, I can't say that I actually saw money being exchanged from coach/player, whatever;
no, I can't say that, say that.

Okay.

But, uh, again, you know, it's like you question my situation. It doesn't take a rocket scientist to see a [redacted] pop up at [redacted]. A [redacted] goes to [redacted]. Uh, immediately make them instant success.

Uh, to see a [redacted] or a [redacted] or [redacted], all of them pop up at a, at, at a little ol' bitty school at [redacted]. Uh, you know, it's just, it's, it's just situations that, that I'm again --

HAL GOLDSMITH: But do you know how that happened?

Do you know --

HAL GOLDSMITH: Has anybody told you? Has Mike Noll told you or people like Mike Noll, has anybody told you?

COACH IRONS: Well, you know, you know, people, no, that's --

Coach, I want to try to --

That's the, as you say, it, it, it, it's the scuttlebutt in, in, in, in the circle as you would say. So and so saw something, for instance, like, you know, I went to, I went to, uh, and I'm not affiliated, I haven't been affiliated with Vashon in the last two years in terms of basketball. I go to a, to watch a game and I, I sit there and watch a, a, a, a youth game, AAU youth game and then the person sitting next to me says, oh, yeah, you know, they're going to that person, that kid right here is going to __ Uh, don't worry, he lives at, he, he he's staying with the __ The __ and them is gonna get that kid to __ because, uh, you know, they're gonna make that son, you know. That, that type. You know, you hear that, you hear so many that end up at, at __ But all we, you ask about a __ For two years, you know, I, I, my ___ played at __ at __ and I used to go see my ___ at __ and, uh, and play against, uh, __ (sic) was it __ And I see __, I mean, __ sixth, seventh-grade kid sitting on, uh, ___ bench doing, you know, keeping score, running errands, doing whatever. You know, he's living with, with somebody out there because that's where he's gonna do. Now whether, you know, if, if, is that illegal or what? I'm just sayin'. But it, it happens.

DOCTOR URHAHN: I think the thing that --

COACH IRONS: And, and for me to put a name but this is how it happens, Hal, and that's the way, you know.

You sit there --

HAL GOLDSMITH: I'm asking you --

COACH IRONS: That's how you get it.

DOCTOR URHAHN: But see, that's the issue we have though is that --

COACH IRONS: And I know which problems you got.

DOCTOR URHAHN: You're saying that you're hearing this and --

RICHARD SINDEL: Wait just a minute 'cause she's trying to get it down and you guys are driving her nuts.

COACH IRONS: Okay.
DOCTOR URHAHN: You're talking about you hear this and you hear that and you can't put a name to it and you can't, that's the issue that we have as well. You know, whenever somebody tells us this, we have to be able to, to substantiate what they're saying.

And what you tell us today as far as people's names and everything else, we will look and see what we can find. But again, we have got to be able to substantiate that. That's part of the reason why we're here today is we're trying to find out is there any credibility or any validity to what we've, what we've been finding out.

You know, we know that there are some things that we have been able to confirm.
There's other things that we,
we want to get your view on it and your opinion on it so we can have another stand on that, another opinion. Okay?

COACH IRONS: Let's take a look at this kid that, that just left and went to, uh, the prep school down at (inaudible).

The kid's name and the guy who he allegedly stayed with.
and, and the mother, you know, she verified the fact that he stayed with [REDACTED] Now, how did he, and he lived in Vashon District. I, you know, I, we didn't, you know, it, it, it, it, it's --

DOCTOR URHAHN: Now, the young man that went to the prep school, the prep school is not our member but are you telling me that he was going to [REDACTED] and he should not have been going to?

COACH IRONS: Yes.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay.

What was his name
again, the young man's name?

COACH IRONS: Is it? I know it's there's only one, a

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay. I can find that out.

COACH IRONS: And he's now at, at,
at, --

DOCTOR URHAHN: He's at a

COACH IRONS: In

What's the name of that Academy,

Q A
Do you have any connection with

Q A
No. I didn't know anything about until this year.

DOCTOR URHAHN: They just appeared this year.

MAL MAYSE: All right.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Speaking of Milestone we've got a couple young man who were, who went to, came to Vashon last year and then --

COACH IRONS: Right.

DOCTOR URHAHN: This is what we talked about up there at, at Columbia. and COACH IRONS: And I was there with you.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Right.

COACH IRONS: Yeah.

Those played in the summer program. Uh, I did not talk to either one of about coming to Vashon.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay.

COACH IRONS: mother was very active. I know, uh, mother was very active and come to find out later she was very disenchanted, uh, with her uh, going to

She spoke of that.

Uh, she, she also spoke, 'cause I asked her, well, how did your son get from and then you'd have to ask her about that.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay.

COACH IRONS: And I'm sure she'll expound upon the fact of how her son got from and, you know.

DOCTOR URHAHN: But what you're telling me right now is that you had nothing, you had nothing to do with young --

COACH IRONS: I did not.

DOCTOR URHAHN: -- coming to Vashon?

COACH IRONS: I did not. I did not.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Now, you mentioned in Columbia that you did not know those before they walked in the doors of Vashon.

COACH IRONS: No, I mentioned to you and, and, and that they played in the summer program.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay.

COACH IRONS: That I had seen in the summer program.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay.

But you did not know

COACH IRONS: I did not talk to about coming to Vashon.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay.

COACH IRONS: I did not know I, I had, I, put is this way, I knew because he had played the year before at

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay.

COACH IRONS: As a, I guess a freshman, sophomore, whatever, played on the JV. But me knowing them, no.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay.

Now, both of from my understanding went to that?

COACH IRONS: No. is gone to the.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay.

And is --

COACH IRONS: is, is at Vashon.

DOCTOR URHAHN: -- at Vashon, okay. Okay.

But from what, from what told his Principal and his A.D. and his coach that, what you're saying is that is not true? You did not talk to him --

COACH IRONS: Okay.

DOCTOR URHAHN: You did not talk to him at the finals?

COACH IRONS: And that's not what and his mother -- DOCTOR URHAHN: Well, I'm just saying --

COACH IRONS: -- were not, well, see, that's what, that's what you're saying the coach.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Right.

COACH IRONS: Now, if you ask the mother, the mother will tell you that they were lying.

That I never talked to that

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay.

COACH IRONS: I never talked, I didn't know, again, I didn't know 'til I saw him in the summertime.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay.

Well, the, the issue is, is that I have three adults who have, who talked to him independently that all say the same exact thing --

COACH IRONS: They told you they talked to him independently.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Right.
COACH IRONS: They told you that they and so, again, why would I question this mother about her son or daughter. She's telling me something, I'm just, I'm just using this example. So, why would I want to question her and call her a liar if I know nothing about it.

HAL GOLDSMITH: It is odd that a kid from __ends up at Vashon.

COACH IRONS: No, it's not because --

HAL GOLDSMITH: How many kids you for from __--

COACH IRONS: First of all how did the kid get to __?

HAL GOLDSMITH: You tell me.

COACH IRONS: No, I'm just telling you.

HAL GOLDSMITH: No, you tell me.

COACH IRONS: You find the track of how the kid get to __ How did this good basketball player, you know, how he got to St. Louis and I found out too? Mother moved to St. Louis because of her job.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay.

COACH IRONS: Mother told, tells me she's moving back to St. Louis. This is how I found, through one of my coaches, that he, she's moving back because her job is moving her back to St. Louis.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay.

COACH IRONS: That's how I found out that he got to Vashon.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay.

FLOYD IRONS: enrolled at Vashon as a grader.

RICHARD SINDEL: Who was that again?

MAL MAYSE:

RICHARD SINDEL: okay.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Do you remember where was at his grade year?

COACH IRONS: DeSeg.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay.

COACH IRONS: DeSeg.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay.

Q And --

A Not DeSeg the, uh, Magnet --

DOCTOR URHAHN: Magnet School?

COACH IRONS: Magnet Program.

Q Did his parents, did he live with his parents, Coach?

A Yes, uh, --

Q Do you know their names?

A I know their last name, her last name now is because she didn't want the

Because and, if you look at and you look at both of them played at Vashon before (inaudible).

Q Did his parent, did he, you say he lived with his parents; is that right?

A Yeah.

Q And did they live on?

A That's where, uh, they were found out, I don't know what address they might of used.
DOCTOR URHAHN: That's what they gave to the school.

COACH IRONS: The

Yes.

So, I guess they, they, he comes by way of Magnet.

DOCTOR URHAHN: The thing about it is though to be eligible if you're going from a Magnet School to a neighborhood school to be eligible you have to be in that attendance area.

Q Which District would that be in and neighborhood?

DOCTOR URHAHN: I'm not sure which --

Q

A Is that in the District?

DOCTOR URHAHN: Coach, I guess the thing, the last thing that I've got is just, you mentioned you had other situations that you're aware of other people doing things that, that, you know, are violating our Rules. I guess what I need is I, I need something --

COACH IRONS: With some substance.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Right.

And I, I would also --

COACH IRONS: You know, I, you know, I, I, I, I, the, the substance would, would, would end up being the same thing that you did, you took an enormous amount of time, energy, uh, to gather this information.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Yes.

COACH IRONS: And I, I know that, you know, your office and I understand the enormity, amount of problems that's out there. Uh, you would have to take it, you know, you, you, you, you got a special section or condry of people who are doin' that.
Uh, Kirsten Hinman will give you all some time and go door to door and scrutinize and come up with the same type of scrutinization she did --

HAL GOLDSMITH: The question was, what do you have? Do you have any information?

COACH IRONS: I'm, I'm getting to that.

HAL GOLDSMITH: Go ahead.

COACH IRONS: My, again, my information that I'm telling you is by way of someone telling me.

DOCTOR UHRAHN: Okay.

Well, let me ask this --

COACH IRONS: Just like your information.

DOCTOR UHRAHN: Let me ask this.
Would you be willing to put that in writing for us? The things that you've heard and have seen, would you be willing to put that in writing for us?

RICHARD SINDEL: Just whenever he can get it to us.

HAL GOLDSMITH: Why can't you tell them?

COACH IRONS: I'm telling them.
I'm telling you now that that's, you know, I, I, I hear about the kid that,
that, at

DOCTOR URNAHN: Okay.

COACH IRONS: I hear about the kid at I hear about --

DOCTOR URNAHN: I, I need to know names as far as, the kid at do you know what his name is?

COACH IRONS: No, it was just in the paper. I would have to,
I would have to sit down and,
and, and think of those. I guess I could give a name, give you names of people you need to check, check out.
Let me help, Coach, with this 'cause I, I mean, you know, you've been in this business thirty-one years and you know, you, you've had questions, you know, rumors and things about you. You've come to Columbia, you've answered some things, you know, in the past and you know how it goes when you talk about rumors. I, we don't need rumors --

Right.

Check this guy out or check that. We don't want to go on those wild goose chases. I, I, we want to say, if you know what I call credible information, credible information that is, that is coming from a person that, that maybe has firsthand information, the person that furnished something or somebody lived with somebody, it's firsthand credible information that you have we need that. But we don't need any stories about rumors 'cause we've chased those with you --

I understand.

-- in the past for years.

I would not give, you know, I would not give you, uh, any rumors. I would, uh, if it, if I would give you some information --

All right.
A -- it would be something that, that you probably could substantiate, you could substantiate on it, on it. So, again, I, to just --

Q Could you do that within a week or ten days?

A I could, you know, provide something to my lawyer in a week or ten days to do that. We'll sit down but again, I got --

COACH IRONS: But see, like,

Hal, when I come within ten feet of people it's like now, you know, because of what I'm under, it's like I, I, I've been a mass murderer. People who talk --

HAL GOLDSMITH: Well, that's not the point. The point is --

COACH IRONS: No, the point is,

Hal, that the people who talk, who would talk to me then might not necessarily talk to me now.

RICHARD SINDEL: You don't need to be proactive.

Q We're not asking you to do an investigation.
We're not asking you --

HAL GOLDSMITH: They're not asking you --

DOCTOR URHAHN: Right, we're not asking you --

We're not asking you to do an investigation.

HAL GOLDSMITH: We're asking you to sit down for a few minutes when you have some time, pretty quick though, and go through, for example, I think you were suggesting that --

COACH IRONS: No, I'm not saying that he's a booster. That's, I'm not saying he's a booster. I don't want to put --

DOCTOR URHAHN: You're just saying he's a parent.

SHANNON McGARRY: But that's what you were --

COACH IRONS: Okay, no, no, no. See anybody can be considered a booster if they got a kid (inaudible). Not necessary, when I say --

HAL GOLDSMITH: My word, booster. Is there some --

DOCTOR URHAHN: Well, we have a, an indirect, an indirect relationship to the school. A booster club would be a direct relationship to the school.

HAL GOLDSMITH: I just meant somebody that's supporting, somebody named [redacted] supporting the program by helping do some things.

COACH IRONS: Okay.

HAL GOLDSMITH: You were suggesting that. I used the term booster. I don't know what the legal --

DOCTOR URHAHN: Well, they're a benefactor to the school.

HAL GOLDSMITH: That's all I'm saying.

COACH IRONS: Benefactor.
HAL GOLDSMITH: That's all I'm saying. If you --

COACH IRONS: Okay.

HAL GOLDSMITH: If you'd put that kind of concrete stuff down.

Isn't that what you're suggesting to us earlier?

COACH IRONS: Right.

HAL GOLDSMITH: ____________

COACH IRONS: Um-hum.

HAL GOLDSMITH: Right?

COACH IRONS: Yeah.

HAL GOLDSMITH: Well, just put that, talk to your lawyer or whatever but get it to me.

Q I have just one, one thing --

A Okay. You can write this down. And I know these two kids are gone, uh, ____________ and, uh, another kid who just _______

DOCTOR URAHN: ____________

COACH IRONS: Well, it's not, it's not, it's not, it's not his name --

Q His little, ____________?
He got

Well, they --

HAL GOLDSMITH:

COACH IRONS: Well, he, he,

that, that was put there by way of Mike Noll.

HAL GOLDSMITH: And when you say put there what do you mean?

COACH IRONS: Well, you know, you've got to track as to how financially they, they were able to pay that.

HAL GOLDSMITH: Tuition?

Tuition?

Tuition.

HAL GOLDSMITH: How do you know that?

COACH IRONS: Well, I would know that because Mike Noll --

HAL GOLDSMITH: That's the, I think that's what he's asking.

COACH IRONS: 'Cause Mike Noll told me that they are going --

DOCTOR URNAHN: That he's supporting

COACH IRONS: That --

RICHARD SINDEL: Whoa, she's not speaking up for herself but I will.

DOCTOR URNAHN: Okay.

RICHARD SINDEL: She can't do it.

COACH IRONS: Mike Noll would, would, would tell, told me that would be going to

DOCTOR URNAHN: --

COACH IRONS: --

HAL GOLDSMITH: I thought you were talking about

RICHARD SINDEL: Wait a minute, wait a minute, this is not a conversation here. This is a record and I'm trying to figure out who is saying what and it's impossible and I know she's having a hard time because everybody is talking over everyone else.

Let's do this as if it were a deposition.

HAL GOLDSMITH: Let's go back.

When did Mike Noll have this conversation and what did he tell you?

COACH IRONS: This conversation might have been maybe a year or two ago. You know, we were earmarked to go, you know, would be earmarked.

DOCTOR URHAHN: we were earmarked to go to or

COACH IRONS:

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay,

COACH IRONS: showed up, show up at and were there for, uh,

HAL GOLDSMITH: It was less than COACH IRONS: It was and got into some and now over at Now, whether in the I can't tell you that.

DOCTOR URAHAN: So, were just recently

COACH IRONS: Um-hum.

DOCTOR URAHAN: Okay.

HAL GOLDSMITH: Specifically what did Mike Noll tell you?

COACH IRONS: He told me specifically that will be going to No, I keep saying And, because I know that his choices would be

DOCTOR URAHAN: All right.

COACH IRONS: It wouldn't be it wouldn't
It would probably, well, I know --

HAL GOLDSMITH: What would make a choice with Noll?

COACH IRONS:

RICHARD SINDEL: Is it

COACH IRONS: His connection to

HAL GOLDSMITH: But his kid went to COACH IRONS: Well, yeah, So that, his connection is, would be, uh, with would be, well, if he's got other connections outside of the coach, I wouldn't know. But I know he's got you know. Uh, his connections with would be, could be any number of people but I know know what's goin' on.

HAL GOLDSMITH: Are you suggesting that Noll paid to go to or that scholarship or --

COACH IRONS: might be which we know, you know who the are.

HAL GOLDSMITH: What else?

COACH IRONS: Again, I'd have to sit down and, and put this down.

Q I have a couple questions. Coach, do the, the students that came to Vashon were they ever provided their jackets, Vashon, did they provide jackets or shoes, any merchandise like that? Was it provided some way to the students, athletes?

A Well, you know, when, when you say provided did they have to pay for them?

Q Yes, their jackets.

A Certain things.

Q Did they get a Vashon jacket, for example, for no cost to them?

A You know, you know, --
HAL GOLDSMITH: I think that's yes or no.

Q Yes or no?

A Well, some might of been, yes.

Q How was that, how were those jackets provided?

A Fundraisers.

Q All right.

A We would have, we would have fundraisers. We would, we would, you know, we could, we played the schools could purchase, be part of the uniform, you know.

Q I'm talking about letter jacket, those are, those are kind of expenses, aren't they? Aren't they two hundred and fifty dollars a pop, jackets?

A No.

Q School jackets?

A If I bring you one, the jacket that you're talkin' about, if I can bring it in here you can go get that jacket at a K-Mart and, and people didn't realize. That's a lot of times I would do, I would go and buy stuff at a K-Mart, take it to, uh, uh, uh, my, my little seamstress lady and say, put this V on it. And those jackets didn't cost that much but when you see them all with them on the first thing they say, well, okay, look at Vashon. You know, they got, they got jackets.
   Well, if, if, if that was a ploy to, to, to, to get kids looking, say I want to be a part of, yes, that, you know, so, so, so, no.
   Q  Did you provide those to some of your team but not all of your team?
   A  All the team.
   Q  All right.
   A  At one --
   Q  And how many years, how many years did you do that?
   A  We only, we only got, we got jackets, the letterman jackets, I'm thinking to think, one year. That was it might have been --
   Q  '98/’99?
   A  No. We didn't have any jackets in, not letterman's jackets. I think that was there junior year 'cause I just saw a picture.
   DOCTOR URHAHN: That would have been 2000/2001.
   COACH IRONS: Right.
   DOCTOR URHAHN: Their junior year.
COACH IRONS: Junior year that we provided the lettermen's jackets. Uh, we had letter, you know, we had lettermen's jackets.

Q How much, how much did you buy those for at K-Mart?

A Uh, I would, I would, I would say I might have gone to a, a, a Foot Locker and got them for thirty or forty dollars.

Q And then how much did the seamstress lady charge you to --

A I'm not, not at Vashon wouldn't charge anything. I'd get the letter, the school purchased the letter and we put, you noticed the letters only had a V. Now, if the kid wanted to jazz it up then that was left up to them to go on and put whatever else they wanted; their name or, or we'd just get the letter, the jacket and put the V on it.

Q And the one year, you said 2000/2001 you provided these letter jackets. Let me ask you one other general question here. We talked about today and, of course, you know, that information, you know, if we had known that a long time ago or sooner, you know what I'm saying, that that would be a problem with the Undue Influence Rules of the Association. You know that, you had said you knew that.

Any other students, Coach, during your tenure where you provided either apartments, jobs, cars, any, you know, that sort of material benefit, not just that but that type of thing to a student who enrolled in your school and played on your basketball team?

A  No.

Q  Now, when you say apartments, summer jobs, yes.

A  All right.

Q  I felt that it was part of my responsibility to try to find summer employment for my players. Did I go out and ask, St. Louis Public Schools hired some of them doing certain things. Uh, I would ask different people if they, to hire, you know, to let them work for X amounts so they could make them some summer money. I even went to the Parks and Recreation. One year I went to the Parks and Recreation and I said, uh, could they hire them, uh, in the situation whereby the kids would go to different recreational centers and spend a week there to, uh, provide instructions for the kids and the Park would pay them.

Uh, one year --

Coach, let me, let me --

I'm just saying --

All right.

One year though they qualified, we got some through Slate, they, they, some of them qualified through Slate.

In those situations, those students provided services for pay in that, in a work situation. That's not what ___ did to get ___ money for ___ rent for ___ apartment or ___ dad for the car or the things that you provided?

But ___ worked in the summer.

___ worked in the summer for someone else and then got paid for that. That's, I'm talking about the money that you provided for anything other than a student athlete for your school where you just provided money. I'm asking you in your, in your career, any other student?

No.

___ the only exceptions where you did that in your life?
A: Yes, in terms of apartment, taking care of uh, yeah.

HAL GOLDSMITH: What about tavel and meals?

COACH IRONS: When, when, when they'd go out of town, we'd go out of town, uh, I, you know, again I provided meals for my kids when we went to,
to, to Vegas.

HAL GOLDSMITH: You provided airfare, didn't you, and hotel?

COACH IRONS: No, I didn't.

Airfare didn't come through me. I didn't pay for the airfare but the airfare was provided in terms of kids going through the AAU Program.

DOCTOR URHAN: They can receive that. As far as anything that's associated with going and playing.

COACH IRONS: But the meals, you know, once we got there -- DOCTOR URHAHN: Meals, lodging and stuff.

MAL MAYSE: Reasonable.

COACH IRONS: Once we got there
I, I paid for our kids meals and the way I paid for that is the summer program would, we would charge two dollars at the door and make the money to provide meals and stuff. And then the kids got summer jobs where they would have money so they could subsidize.

DOCTOR URHAHN: All right, Coach, we appreciate your time. I know it's not been an easy time for you but we, we appreciate you being here.

The thing I would ask is that you can put some of those things down in writing about places or things that are going on that we can substantiate, we will look in to them.

You know, it's just one of those things that we've to make sure we can, we can substantiate everything that comes out.

Is there anything, do you have any questions of us?

COACH IRONS: No. I, I, you know, it, it's not something that I'm proud of in terms of what I've been through. Uh, but, providing a service, whether people want to see it as providing a service or what is seen that I'm gettin' a one-upmanship on, you know, I don't, I don't, I don't make any excuses for that. I think that the particular look at the number of kids who have come through our program and where they are today for the most part, many of them benefited.
Now, uh, so, you know, and, and that, that I can see some of them, you know, when you ask me about a you know, I'd rather see in college than to see walkin' the streets or in jail. So that's my response.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay. All right. I appreciate it.

SHANNON McGARRY: Just one quick question. What's your sister's name?

COACH IRONS: Which one?

SHANNON McGARRY: Uh, the one who owns the Denali.

COACH IRONS: Roxanne.

SHANNON McGARRY: Roxanne Myers?

COACH IRONS: No, she got divorced.

RICHARD SINDEL: Can you send me the pertinent copy of the Rules for the time period that we're talking about?

MAL MAYSE: There'd be separate Handbooks for every year.

COACH IRONS: They give out a new one every year.

MAL MAYSE: We get a Handbook
every year.

RICHARD SINDEL: Are these changes
every year?

MAL MAYSE: Some.

DOCTOR URHAHN: We had thirty changes this past year.

MAL MAYSE: But not, but not all in the, in the area of the Rules we're talking about.

RICHARD SINDEL: Well then I can,
    I'm really interested, obviously, only in the area that we're talking about to see if I can make sure I have the appropriate Handbook.

DOCTOR URHAHN: Okay. I can see what I can come up. I can see if we have those electronically still.

RICHARD SINDEL: Okay.

DOCTOR URHAHN: If we do I can send them to you through e-mail.

RICHARD SINDEL: We need to talk to you before we go away.

MAL MAYSE: We can step out.
